

COMMUNICATION TIPS:

Photo, Video, News and Email Services to Keep Parents Up to Date

With camp serving as such an influential time in every child's life, invite parents to feel like they're part of the camp experience, even when they're hundreds of miles away.

The eCamp photo, video, news and email service will benefit your camper community in the following ways:

1. Enhance and extend the camp experience.
2. Build referrals within your community.
3. Generate additional value and revenue.

As an additional revenue stream, look for a camp photo service provider that shares revenues with your camp for all photo merchandise purchased.
